

The Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 24, 2016

In bargaining with God, Abraham demonstrates a real persistence in prayer. Jesus invites us to persist in prayer as well, to "ask...seek...knock". May our prayer open us to God's will, and so build up His strength within us. In baptism, we have died with Christ, and have been raised to life with Him.

Change Your Thinking

Two men, both seriously ill, occupied the same hospital room. One man was allowed to sit up in his bed for an hour each afternoon to help drain the fluid from his lungs. His bed was next to the room's only window. The other man had to spend all his time flat on his back. The men talked for hours on end. They spoke of their wives and families, their homes, their jobs, their involvement in the military service, where they had been on vacation. Every afternoon, when the man in the bed by the window could sit up, he would pass the time by describing to his roommate all the things he could see outside the window. The man in the other bed began to live for those one hour periods where his world would be broadened and enlivened by all the activity and color of the world outside. The window overlooked a park with a lovely lake. Ducks and swans played on the water while children sailed their model boats. Young lovers walked arm in arm amidst flowers of every color, and a fine view of the city skyline could be seen in the distance.

As the man by the window described all this in exquisite details, the man on the other side of the room would close his eyes and imagine this picturesque scene. One warm afternoon, the man by the window described a parade passing by. Although the other man could not hear the band, he could see it in his mind's eye as the gentleman by the window portrayed it with descriptive words.

Days, weeks and months passed. One morning, the day nurse arrived to bring water for their baths only to find the lifeless body of the man by the window, who had died peacefully in his sleep. She was saddened and called the hospital attendants to take the body away. As soon as it seemed appropriate, the other man asked if he could be moved next to the window. The nurse was happy to make the switch, and after making sure he was comfortable, she left him alone. Slowly, painfully, he propped himself up on one elbow to take his first look at the real world outside. He strained to slowly turn to look out the window beside the bed. It faced a blank wall.

The man asked the nurse what could have compelled his deceased roommate who had described such wonderful things outside this window. The nurse responded that the man was blind and could not even see the wall. She said, "perhaps he just wanted to encourage you."

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

“Padre, ésta es la vida eterna, que te conozcan a ti, el único Dios verdadero y a tu enviado Jesucristo” (Jn 17, 3). “Dios nuestro Salvador... quiere que todos los hombres se salven y lleguen al conocimiento pleno de la verdad” (1 Tm 2, 3-4). “No Hay bajo el cielo otro nombre dado a los hombres por el que nosotros debamos salvarnos” (Hech 4, 12), sino el nombre de Jesús.

1. LA VIDA DEL HOMBRE : CONOCER Y AMAR A DIOS

Dios, infinitamente Perfecto y Bienaventurado es sí mismo, en un designio de pura bondad ha creado libremente al hombre para que tenga parte en su vida bienaventurada. Por eso, en todo tiempo y en todo lugar, está cerca del hombre. Le llama y le ayuda a buscarlo, a conocerle y a amarle con todas sus fuerzas. Convoca a todos los hombres que el pecado dispersó, a la unidad de su familia, la Iglesia. Lo hace mediante su Hijo que envió como Redentor y Salvador al llegar la plenitud de los tiempos.

† XVII Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario †

Lucas 11, 1-13

Hoy en el Evangelio, uno de los discípulos pregunta a Jesús: “Señor enséñanos a orar”. Cuando Jesús le responde les da la oración del Padrenuestro. Sigue hoy en día siendo una oración muy completa. También Jesús les habla del poder de la oración y les da un ejemplo de lo importante que es la perseverancia de seguir orando constantemente. En la parábola de hoy les da un ejemplo de un hombre que va a pedir pan, y aunque a quien le pide se lo niega primero después de que insiste tanto acaba por darle lo que pide.

¿Cuál es la mejor forma que tienes para orar? ¿Qué haces si Dios no te concede lo que pides?
