

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 26, 2016

Elisha is summoned to follow the prophet Elijah and to succeed him. Jesus insists that those who follow Him must abandon all material or psychological securities, walking ever forward without looking back. It is the Lord alone who is to hold fast our lot. Paul distinguishes between true freedom and license.

Find Out About Being a Sponsor for the RCIA

Our RCIA community will soon need several individuals to serve as sponsors for those discerning to become Catholic. This year we have been blessed with a wonderful group of inquirers, some of whom are ready to take the first major step towards becoming one with us in the Catholic faith. To share this gift of faith with another is such a grace-filled privilege.

As you well know, there is no greater gift than our Catholic faith. When an individual comes to St. Mary to inquire about the Catholic faith and decides to participate in the RCIA process, it is truly one of our brothers and sisters “coming home” and from that moment their life will never be the same. God has touched their hearts and we at St. Mary must do everything we can to make them welcome.

Our responsibility is to be there when this tremendous movement of grace happens and be the instruments of the Holy Spirit’s work of keeping that grace alive in the person’s heart. It takes dedicated sponsors who are willing to share their faith with another so that each person called into our parish family may experience the peace and joy of being Catholic.

With this in mind, we invite you to be considered for the role of sponsor this year. We will have two opportunities for you to attend an informational and training session this Sunday, June 26, or Sunday, July 10, at noon in St. Matthew’s class room in the Parish Center. This will not only be our opportunity to get to know you and you us, but also to provide you with specific information on being a sponsor.

Let me know which session you would like to attend, or if you have a question or concern please feel free to call me at 541-517-2779.

Sincerely in Christ, Geri Heideman
