Second Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

April 23, 2017

Thomas believed because he saw the risen Jesus. Although we have never seen Him, we believe in Him. We give thanks to the Lord for this gift of faith, especially when we gather for the breaking of the bread and the prayers.

Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska - The Humble Instrument

*Saint Maria
Faustina*

Sister Faustina was a young, uneducated nun in a convent of the Congregation of Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Poland during the 1930s. She came from a poor family that struggled during the years of World War I. She had only three years of simple education, so hers were the humblest tasks in the convent, usually in the kitchen or garden. However, she received extraordinary revelations — or messages — from our Lord Jesus. Jesus asked Sr. Faustina to record these experiences, which she compiled into notebooks. These notebooks are known today as the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska, and the words contained within are God's loving message of Divine Mercy.

Though the Divine Mercy message is not new to the teachings of the Church, Sr. Faustina's Diary sparked a great movement, and a strong and significant focus on the mercy of Christ. Saint John Paul II canonized Sr. Faustina in 2000 making her the "first saint of the new millennium." Speaking of Sr. Faustina and the importance of the message contained in her Diary, the Pope called her "the great apostle of Divine Mercy in our time."

Today, we continue to rely on St. Faustina as a constant reminder of the message to trust in Jesus' endless mercy, and to live life mercifully toward others. We also turn to her in prayer and request her intercession to our merciful Savior on our behalf.

Fatima's 100th

In 2013, Pope Francis consecrated the entire world to the care of Our Lady of Fatima. Today, Fatima is one of the most visited pilgrimage sites in the world. The Pope will visit on May 13, 2017, to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the apparition.

On May 13, 1917, three shepherd children – Lúcia Santos and her cousins, Jacinta and Francisco Marto, – were tending their flock outside their Portuguese village. A beautiful lady appeared to them saying she was from heaven and asking them to return to that spot for the next six months. On October 13, her last appearance, 70,000 people gathered to witness the “miracle of the sun,” during which the sun appeared to zigzag and change colors.

The lady, who later revealed herself to be the Blessed Virgin, asked the children to pray the Rosary daily to obtain peace and the end of World War I. She also gave them three secrets, which were later revealed by Sister Lúcia. The first was a vision of hell. The second asked for the Consecration of Russia, and the third was a vision of the death of a pope and other religious figures. Jacinta and Francisco, who died shortly after the apparitions, were declared blessed in May 2000. Lúcia lived her life as a nun, dying in 2005 at the age of 97.

Thank You from CCS

With your generous contributions, we collected over 5,000 warm articles of clothing and linens for local families and individuals. CATECISMO DE LA IGLESIA CATÓLICA
El Nuevo Testamento

124. "La Palabra de Dios, que es fuerza de Dios para la salvación del que cree, se encuentra y despliega su fuerza de modo privilegiado en el Nuevo Testamento". Estos escritos nos ofrecen la verdad definitiva de la Revelación divina. Su objeto central es Jesucristo, el Hijo de Dios encarnado, sus obras, sus enseñanzas, su pasión y su glorificación, así como los comienzos de su Iglesia bajo la acción del Espíritu Santo.

125. Los Evangelios son el corazón de todas las Escrituras "por el testimonio principal de la vida y doctrina de la Palabra hecha carne, nuestro Salvador".

La Unidad del Antiguo y del Nuevo Testamento

128. "La Iglesia, ya en los tiempos apostólicos, y después constantemente en su tradición, esclareció la unidad del plan divino en los dos Testamentos gracias a la tipología. Esta reconoce, en las obras de Dios en la Antigua Alianza, prefiguraciones de lo que Dios realizó en la plenitud de los tiempos en la persona de su Hijo encarnado.

Donde todos son acogidos y amados por la misericordia

Día 770 ~ El tiempo y la experiencia me han enseñado una lección invaluable. Cualquier niño que aceptemos como nuestro se convertirá en nuestro si nos entregamos nosotros mismos a él. Yo parí dos hijos y tuve otros siete a los que adopté, todos ellos son mis amados hijos.

† 2° Domingo de Pascua o de la Divina Misericordia †

Juan 20, 19-31

¡Bendito Sea Dios Por Su Gran Misericordia!

Hoy la Iglesia celebra la octava de Pascua: completamos ocho días de celebrar, como si se tratara de un único día, la Resurrección del Señor.

† San Juan Pablo II, mediante el decreto Misericors et miserator, del 5 de mayo del 2000, estableció que el segundo Domingo de Pascua también fuera el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia en todo el mundo.

† Esto implica que, Cristo resucitó (el qué) al mismo tiempo reconocemos que la iniciativa salvífica de Dios fue por su gran Misericordia (el porqué) en favor nuestro.

† Al anochecer del día en que resucitó, Cristo se presenta en medio de sus discípulos y en lugar de recriminarles su cobardía y su infidelidad, los hace ministros de la misericordia divina.

† El Señor pone en sus manos el don de perdonar los pecados, "que brota de las heridas de sus manos, de sus pies y sobre todo de su costado traspasado.

El Resucitado hace que podamos recibir el perdón de nuestros pecados por medio de sus ministros.
