Pentecost Sunday

June 4, 2017

All of us have been baptized into one and the same Spirit. That same Spirit, the Advocate, our comfort and refreshment, was given as a gift to the disciples to strengthen them to go forth in the name of the Lord, "to renew the face of the earth."

Pope Francis Five Finger Prayer

3 The following finger is the tallest. It reminds us of our leaders, the governors and those who have authority. They need God's guidance.

4 The fourth finger is the ring finger. Even though it may surprise you, it is our weakest finger. It should remind us to pray for the weakest, the sick or those plagued by problems. They need your prayers.

2 The next finger is the index. Pray for those who teach you, instruct you and heal you. They need the support and wisdom to show direction to others. Always keep them in your prayers.

1 The thumb is the closest finger to you. So start praying for those who are closest to you. They are the persons easiest to remember. To pray for our dear ones is a "Sweet Obligation."

5 And finally we have our smallest finger, the smallest of all. Your pinkie should remind you to pray for yourself. When you are done praying for the other four groups, you will be able to see your own needs but in the proper perspective, and also you will be able to pray for your own needs in a better way.

Summer Saint of the Month ~ St. Dominic (1170-Aug. 6, 1221)

St. Dominic was born into a noble Spanish Family. When his mother was pregnant with him she had a dream of a dog carrying a torch who "set the world on fire," which is what Dominic did with his preaching against heresies. Her dream gave rise to the play on word for his followers, called Dominicans, since the Latin phrase domini canis means "dogs of the Lord." One of the legends about St. Dominic claims that Mary personally handed him the rosary from heaven; hence Dominicans receive credit for spreading the devotion around the world. Many well-known saints, including Albert the Great, Martin de Porres, Rose of Lima and Thomas Aquinas have belonged to his order. An orange tree in the headquarters of the Dominicans at Santa Sabina in Rome is said to have been planted by St. Dominic himself in memory of the oranges that grew in his native Spain. A fun fact: Dominic had red hair.

From the Archdiocese

Dear Faithful of the Archdiocese of Portland and all persons of good will:

I was shocked and deeply saddened to hear of the violent tragedy that took place in Portland on Friday. My heart goes out to all those affected by what happened, and I ask the faithful in western Oregon and all people to join me taking some spiritual and practical actions in working towards peace and respect for those who make up this wonderful and diverse community.

Pray for the victims and their families. Our profound gratitude is owed to those who bravely stepped forward to protect the young women who were being vehemently harassed.

Pray for those who may now feel unsafe in moving freely about a city that truly welcomes people of all cultures, faith traditions and walks of life.

Pray for those whose hearts and minds may be hardened to the love of God and act out in such violent and hateful ways.

I encourage all of us to work with local citizens, government officials and faith-based agencies such as our own Catholic Charities to welcome all people to this amazing and vibrant community.

It is only through these Christ-like actions that we can truly make a real and tangible change to this continuing and growing disregard for the dignity of every human person.

The peace of Christ be with you all,

Archbishop Alexander K. Sample

CATECISMO DE LA IGLESIA CATÓLICA Creer en el Espíritu Santo

152. No se puede creer en Jesucristo sin tener parte en su Espíritu. Es el Espíritu Santo quien revela a los hombres quién es Jesús. Porque "nadie puede decir "Jesús es Señor" sino bajo la acción del Espíritu Santo. "El Espíritu todo lo sondea, hasta profundidades de Dios ... Nadie conoce lo íntimo de Dios, sino el Espíritu de Dios". Sólo Dios conoce a Dios enteramente. Nosotros creemos en el Espíritu Santo porque es Dios.

Las Características de la Fe

La fe es una gracia

153. Cuando San Pedro confiesa que Jesús es el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo, Jesús le declara que esta revelación no le ha venido "de la carne y de la sangre, sino de mi Padre que está en los cielos". La fe es un don de Dios, una virtud sobrenatural infundida por El. "Para dar esta respuesta de la fe es necesaria la gracia de Dios que se adelanta y nos ayuda junto con el auxilio interior del Espíritu Santo, que mueve el corazón, lo dirige a Dios, abre los ojos del espíritu y concede "a todos gusto en aceptar y creerla verdad"

† Domingo de Pentecostés †

Juan 20, 19-23

"Recibimos el Espíritu Santo"

Para llenarnos del fuego de su amor, para sanar nuestros corazones, para fortalecernos, para tener el valor de anunciar a Cristo muerto y resucitado.

"Él es nuestro aliado"

† En el pasaje de los Hechos de los Apóstoles (Primera Lectura) se nos describe en detalle el acontecimiento del día de Pentecostés, aquel día en que el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre los apóstoles reunidos con María, para que cumplieran con la misión que les había sido encomendada, como nos lo dice San Juan (Evangelio). También San Pablo (Segunda Lectura) se refiere a la venida del Espíritu Santo como principio de la unidad de la Iglesia en la diversidad de sus misterios
