THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

04 MARCH 12, 2023

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Messiah Before You

If you would have asked me on the morning of my confirmation what the chances were of the Holy Spirit getting into my heart, I would have told you they were about the same as getting water from a stone.

My faith was fragile at this time in my life, primarily because I viewed it as exactly that – my faith. Something within my possession and subject to my own power. And I hadn't done the things I thought I needed to do in order to be the kind of Christian who knows the truth and lives it. I was waiting to be made stronger. I was waiting to be made more faithful. I was waiting for a transformation.

Little did I know, I was like the woman at the well, standing around talking about the coming of the Messiah, unaware that he was standing right in front of me. She wasn't ready; she was still living in her sin. She was caught so unawares that she left her water jar at the well, rushing out to tell what she had seen. When I was anointed with the oil it no longer mattered that I wasn't strong enough to break open the stone that I was convinced encased my heart – God's grace gushed forth through the cracks. While I certainly didn't become a perfect Christian – and never will, in this life – I did learn that when God tells you to strike, it's probably best not to second-guess Him.

"We boast in the glory of God... and hope does not disappoint." Romans 5:2-5

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA

El Mesías ante ti

Si me hubieras preguntado en la mañana de mi confirmación cuáles eran las posibilidades de que el Espíritu Santo entrara en mi corazón, te habría dicho que eran casi las mismas que sacar agua de una piedra. Mi fe era frágil en ese momento de mi vida, principalmente porque la veía exactamente como eso: mi fe. Algo dentro de mi posesión y sujeta a mi propio poder. Y no había hecho las cosas que pensé que tenía que hacer para ser el tipo de cristiana que conoce la verdad y la vive. Estaba esperando a ser más fuerte. Estaba esperando a ser más fiel. Estaba esperando una transformación.

Sin saberlo, yo era como la mujer en el pozo, de pie hablando de la venida del Mesías, sin saber que Él estaba parado justo frente a mí. Ella no estaba lista; todavía estaba viviendo en su pecado. La tomó tan desprevenida que dejó su cántaro de agua en el pozo y salió corriendo a contar lo que había visto.

Cuando fui ungida con el aceite, ya no importaba que no fuera lo suficientemente fuerte como para abrir la piedra que estaba convencida encerraba mi corazón: la gracia de Dios brotó a través de las grietas. Si bien ciertamente no me convertí en una cristiana perfecta, y nunca lo haré en esta vida, aprendí que cuando Dios te dice que golpees, probablemente sea mejor no cuestionarlo.

“Podemos gloriarnos en la gloria de Dios... la esperanza no defrauda”. – Romanos
