Samuel does not see as God sees in the choice of David, who is anointed with oil. As Jesus cures the blind man, so too are we brought from darkness into light through the grace of baptism.

Samuel no ve como Dios ve en la elección de David, quien está ungido con aceite. Así como Jesús cura al ciego, también nosotros somos llevados de las tinieblas a la luz por la gracia del bautismo.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Not As Man Sees

I don't know Fr. Stu personally, but I've heard a fair number of his homilies. I think it is safe to assume that if he and I were to get into a discussion on any number of things, from church history to liturgical music to stand-up comedy, each of us would cringe at the opinions of the other.

But Fr. Stu happens to offer just about the only confession time within 20 miles of me that consistently works with my schedule. That means that, quite by accident, Fr. Stu is my regular confessor. For years now, he's sat patiently on the other side of the grille, listening to me pour out the details of my transgressions, from the pathetic to the embarrassing, and he absolves me of my sins.

In the Gospel, Christ links vision with humility and pride with blindness. We see again and again in Scripture how God delights in surprising us, in revealing himself through people, places, and experiences we not only didn't expect but perhaps had totally written off.

We are right to be proud of the truth, but we are wrong if the truth causes us to be proud of ourselves. The truth no more belongs to the one who believes it than sight belongs to the blind man in the Gospel. A gift does not reflect on the recipient. It reflects on the giver.

After a great deal of thought, I've decided to be grateful that God contrived to give me a confessor whom I strongly disagree with on so many things. It's a powerful reminder of how much I must receive from other people, even those I may think are wrong. In that confessional, Fr. Stu is only a priest, and I am only a sinner.

"Not as man sees does God see." — 1 Samuel 16:7

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA

No como el hombre ve

No conozco al Padre Stu personalmente, pero he escuchado un buen número de sus homilias. Creo que es seguro asumir que, si él y yo discutiéramos cualquier cantidad de cosas, desde la historia de la iglesia hasta la música litúrgica y la comedia en vivo, cada uno de nosotros se encogería ante las opiniones del otro.

Pero el Padre Stu ofrece casi el único tiempo de confesión dentro de 20 millas de mí que funciona consistentemente con mi horario. Eso significa que, por pura casualidad, el Padre Stu es mi confesor habitual. Durante años, se ha sentado pacientemente al otro lado de la rejilla, escuchándome relatar los detalles de mis transgresiones, desde lo patético hasta lo vergonzoso, y me absuelve de mis pecados.

En el Evangelio, Cristo vincula la visión con la humildad y la soberbia con la ceguera. Vemos una y otra vez en las Escrituras cómo Dios se deleita en sorprendernos, en revelarse a sí mismo a través de personas, lugares y experiencias que no solo no esperábamos, sino que tal vez habíamos descartado por completo.

Tenemos razón en estar orgullosos de la verdad, pero estamos equivocados si la verdad nos hace estar orgullosos de nosotros mismos. La verdad no pertenece más a quien la cree que la vista al ciego del Evangelio. Un regalo no se refleja en el destinatario. Se refleja en el dador.

Después de mucho pensar, he decidido agradecer que Dios se las haya ingeniado para darme un confesor con el que estoy en total desacuerdo en tantas cosas. Es un poderoso recordatorio de cuánto debo recibir de otras personas, incluso de aquellas que creo que están equivocadas. En ese confesionario, el Padre Stu es solo un sacerdote, y yo soy solo una pecadora.

“Yo no juzgo como juzga el hombre”. — 1 Samuel 16:7
