THURSDAY, MAY 4

The National Day of Prayer is an annual day of observance held on the first Thursday of May, designated by the United States Congress, when people are asked "to turn to God in prayer and meditation". The president is required by law to sign a proclamation each year, encouraging all Americans to pray on this day.

God has made Jesus both Lord and Messiah.
Through his wounds we have been healed
and have returned to our shepherd.
Let us listen to his voice and follow him.

Dios ha hecho a Jesús Señor y Mesías.
Por sus heridas hemos sido curados
y hemos vuelto a nuestro pastor.
Escuchemos su voz y sigámoslo.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

Cut to the Heart

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You.

So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling.

I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with – my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone – single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained – knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up.

It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example.

It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart."

But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line.

Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth.

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." – Acts 2:38

DJM: DISCIPLES OF JESUS & MARY

Fr. Santan Pinto, founder of DJM and a priest of the Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity (SOLT), served God's people by forming laity as Disciples of Jesus and Mary. He conducted retreats, preached at parish missions, conducted healing services, spoke at conferences, and guided many in spiritual direction.

It was Fr. Pinto's desire that all people come to know and love Jesus through the powerful intercession and guidance of Mary.

There is an active DJM group here at St. Mary, which meets the first Saturday of each month, from 9:00 am - Noon, in the Parish Center. All are welcome to attend the next meeting on Saturday, May 6.

GOD IN DAILY LIFE

How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way – in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can – and should – let our faith animate our lives!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION AT ST. MARY

The Adoration Chapel is open daily from 6:00 am - 8:00 pm with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament each Friday, 8:00 am to 5:30 pm, and Benediction at 5:30 pm. Our goal is to have continuous adoration throughout the day each Friday. If you are interested in covering one hour of Friday Adoration, please contact Marybeth Schombert at 541-342-1139, or sign-up at stmaryeugene.com.
