CELEBRATING ORDINATIONS AND NEW ASSIGNMENTS

Receptions were held for Fr. Matthew Knight after he celebrated the 9:00 and 11:00 Masses, on Sunday, June 18. There were long lines to receive a first blessing from the newly ordained priest. Ordination cards were provided to those blessed.

Receptions were held for Fr. Stephen on Sunday, June 25, after he celebrated not only the last 9:00 am and 11:00 am Sunday Masses, but his last Sunday Masses at St. Mary.

Thank you to the Catechists from the Religious Education program for hosting both receptions.

Fr. Matthew has been assigned to St. Joseph in Salem.
Fr. Stephen has been assigned to St. Peter, in Portland.
God bless you both on your new assignments.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC: A BALLAD OF FLESH AND SPIRIT

- By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together."

But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

"Brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh."

— Romans 8:12

EUCCHARISTIC RENEWAL

"I have no taste for the food that perishes, nor the pleasures of this life.

I want the bread of God, which is the flesh of Christ, who was the seed of David; and for drink I desire his blood which is love that cannot be destroyed."

- St. Ignatius of Antioch

WHAT TO DO WHEN A CHILD ASKS, "WHAT IS THE EUCHARIST?"

Varying to some degree based on the age of the children, use this as a jumping off point in explaining "What is the Eucharist?"

You can begin explaining the Eucharist by reading the Last Supper account in Matthew 26:17-20, 26-30 straight from the Bible. Reread the account a second time. You might choose to have children close their eyes and imagine themselves at the Last Supper listening closely to Jesus' words alongside the disciples.

Tell the children that Sacred Scripture, also known as the Bible and God's Word, teaches us that the Eucharist was given to the apostles by Jesus during the Last Supper. Jesus actually changed the bread and wine at the Last Supper into His Real Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. What an amazing, beyond our human ability to fully understand, but absolutely true moment in time!

The words, "His Real Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity" are very important words in our Catholic language. Do not be afraid to use them with the children. They will mature into a deeper and deeper understanding of these words. Ask the children, "What did Jesus do once the bread and wine were actually Him?" He gave it to His apostles to eat and drink as a special gift. We too are receivers of this amazing gift from God.

Upper elementary children and older youth can be asked, "When did the Last Supper happen in Jesus' days on earth?" It was the night before Jesus died. This shows us the importance of what Jesus did. When people know that they are close to death, they focus on what is really important to them because they don't have much time left. Jesus knew He was going to die, but He took the time to give the disciples and us a magnificent gift, the Eucharist! His very self!

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: LA UNA BALADA DE CARNE Y ESPÍRITU

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

"Mi yugo es fácil y mi carga es ligera," dice el hombre colgado de una cruz. Y si solo nos basáramos en lo que vemos con nuestros ojos: carne atravesada por clavos y espadas, hinchado por los golpes y a centímetros de expirar, parecería una broma.

Te diré algo que todos sabemos: esta vida en la tierra es dura. O es demasiado larga o es demasiado corta. Con frecuencia es dolorosa. Está plagada de problemas que parecen no tener sentido. Es, como escribió Dickens, "hecha de muchas partes soldadas entre sí."

Pero también es sorprendentemente, y absurdamente hermosa. Está llena de experiencias físicas de amor, alegría y paz que son tan poderosas que te dejan sin aliento.

Son ambas cosas: buena y mala, dura y maravillosa, así como somos cuerpo y alma, espíritu y carne.

Nadie conoce al Padre excepto el Hijo, quien entró en nuestra existencia corporal para liberarnos de la esclavitud a ella. Nadie conoce al Hijo sino el Padre, y el medio por el cual se conocen —el amor que pasa entre ellos, la Tercera Persona misma— ha sido compartida con nosotros, ha hecho su morada en nosotros por el bautismo.

"Hermanos, no estamos sujetos al desorden egoísta del hombre, para hacer de ese desorden nuestra regla de conducta." — Romanos 8:12

SUS DONACIONES DE ELECTRODOMÉSTICOS HACEN MÁS QUE APROVECHAR UNA TIENDA DE SEGUNDA MANO.

¿Tiene uno o dos electrodomésticos viejos que quiere sacar de la casa? Llame a St. Vinnie's para retirar electrodomésticos de su hogar de forma gratuita. La reparación, reventa y reciclaje de electrodomésticos han ayudado a financiar los programas locales de servicio social de St. Vincent de Paul desde 1955. Los artículos que necesitan reparaciones simples se reacondicionan, pintan y venden (generalmente con una garantía de 90 días) en las tiendas minoristas de artículos de segunda mano de St. Vinnie. . Lo que no se puede reparar se deconstruye y recicla de manera ambientalmente responsable. Su donación de electrodomésticos genera ingresos por reventa y reciclaje para financiar los esfuerzos de SVdP en servicios humanos, creación de empleo, vivienda asequible y administración ambiental. Para solicitar la recolección gratuita de electrodomésticos, junto con muebles, ropa, libros y más, llame al 541-345-0595 o visite svdp.us.
