BORED AT MASS? SEVEN TIPS TO HELP YOU MAKE THE MOST OF THE EUCHARIST

By Fr. Joshan Rodriguez

One of the most common refrains I hear from young people is ‘Mass is boring. Homilies are boring. I don’t know why I have to come Sunday after Sunday.’ Some of my youth in the rear pews would be distracted on their phones during Mass. When I asked them once what they were doing, one of them retorted with a straight face that he was Instagramming pictures of Mass and tweeting quotes from my homily! Cheeky little fellow (lol) but he got me there. I googled what advice other writers had to give for this problem. But I was met with advice that bordered more on the spiritual. Well, that’s beautiful and brings out the spiritual and salvific meaning of the Eucharist. Most young people I know sincerely want to participate in the Mass more meaningfully, they understand that the Eucharist is rich and meaningful but yet find it difficult to focus and concentrate. Hence, I am tempted to mention some practical steps that one could undertake to get more absorbed into the Mass.

1. Get to the Church on time

Getting to the church at least 10 minutes before Mass makes a huge difference. It gives your mind some time to dial down from the fast-paced activities that you came from. Having all your general preoccupations at the back of your head quite often distracts heavily, and since the readings (Liturgy of the Word) happen close to the beginning, you are bound to lose out and pay less attention. Use the time before Mass to kneel and speak to God from your heart. Offer to him all your joys and the challenges that you are facing, and you will find God speaking to you during the Eucharist.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC: GOD AND THE GOOD STRONG WIND

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

My only real memory of the Mackinac Island ferry was the physical sensation of the wind against my face. I remember, distinctly, that it hurt.

It surprised and confused me because wind had never felt painful before. Looking back now, I realize that it wasn’t just the wind but the spray from the waves that crashed against the side of the ferry – that was what produced the sharp, biting sensation on my skin. But I couldn’t have known that then, because my eyes were clamped shut. I refused to open them, even if I had, I would not have seen much, because my long hair was blown straight across my face.

I was four years old, and it was, in the immortal words of Winnie-the-Pooh, a very blustery day as my family made our way to Mackinac Island. I remember thinking I was going to die. I’m positive now that it wasn’t really all that dramatic, but at four years old, you’re awfully scared of a good strong wind.

Deep inside, aren’t we all, really?

I think of the apostles who cannot recognize Christ – their friend – because he is doing something new. Something impossible. They are so sure he is a ghost, a sinister thing – children are always frightened of what they cannot understand.

And even when he reassures them, still Peter is not convinced. He demands, essentially, a miracle. He demands that Christ make him do what only Christ can do.

And even when the miracle takes place – he walks on water, he defies physics – still he is human. Scared, doubtful, distractible. No match for a good strong wind.

“Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter...” Matthew 14:31
