EUCCHARISTIC RENEWAL

“Recognize in this Bread what hung on the Cross, and in this Chalice what flowed from his side.”
 - St, Augustine of Hippo

THE EUCHARIST, BREAD BROKEN FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD

“The bread I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world” (Jn 6:51). In these words, the Lord reveals the true meaning of the gift of his life for all people. These words also reveal his deep compassion for every man and woman. The Gospels frequently speak of Jesus’ feelings towards others, especially the suffering and sinners (cf. Mt 20:34; Mk 6:34; Lk 19:41). Through a profoundly human sensibility, he expresses God’s saving will for all people – that they may have true life. Each celebration of the Eucharist makes sacramentally present the gift that the crucified Lord made of his life, for us and for the whole world. In the Eucharist Jesus also makes us witnesses of God’s compassion towards all our brothers and sisters. The eucharistic mystery thus gives rise to a service of charity towards neighbor, which “consists in the very fact that, in God and with God, I love even the person whom I do not like or even know. This can only take place on the basis of an intimate encounter with God, an encounter which has become a communion of will, affecting even my feelings. Then I learn to look on this other person not simply with my eyes and my feelings, but from the perspective of Jesus Christ.” In all those I meet, I recognize brothers or sisters for whom the Lord gave his life, loving them “to the end” (Jn 13:1). Our communities, when they celebrate the Eucharist, must become ever more conscious that the sacrifice of Christ is for all, and that the Eucharist thus compels all who believe in him to become “bread that is broken” for others, and to work for the building of a more just and fraternal world. Keeping in mind the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, we need to realize that Christ continues today to exhort his disciples to become personally engaged: “You yourselves, give them something to eat” (Mt 14:16). Each of us is truly called, together with Jesus, to be bread broken for the life of the world.” – Pope Benedict in SACRAMENTUM CARITATIS.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC: TRANSFIGURED

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

We have all had moments when we seem to get a glimpse of Heaven.

For me, they come with the sacraments: in the pew following my First Communion, kneeling before the bishop as he sealed my forehead with oil at my Confirmation, standing opposite my husband on our wedding day, cradling my newborns as the priest poured holy water over their little foreheads, claiming them for Christ.

Moments when the veil between this world and the one to come is pulled away, and our hearts cry out: “Lord, it is good we are here.”

Like Peter at the Transfiguration, we desperately wish the feeling would last forever. We want to hang onto the certainty, the confidence and the joy that radiates from our souls. We want to spend forever looking upon the transfigured face of Christ.

But we are not in heaven yet. We raise our eyes, seeing only this world before us, the words of Jesus ringing in our ears: “Rise, and do not be afraid.”

“His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.”

– Daniel 7:14

“DON'T LET YOUR LIFE BE STERILE. BLAZE A TRAIL. SHINE FORTH WITH THE LIGHT OF YOUR FAITH ... AND LIGHT UP ALL THE WAYS OF THE EARTH WITH THE FIRE OF CHRIST.”

(PRACTICANDO) CATÓLICA: TRANSFIGURADO

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Todos hemos tenido momentos en los que parece que vislumbramos el Cielo.

Para mí, vienen con los sacramentos: en el banco después de mi Primera Comunión, de rodillas ante el obispo mientras me sellaba la frente con aceite en mi Confirmación, de pie frente a mi esposo el día de nuestra boda, acunando a mis recién nacidos mientras el sacerdote derramaba agua bendita sobre sus pequeñas frentes, reclamándolos para Cristo. Momentos en que se corre el velo entre este mundo y el venidero, y nuestro corazón clama: "Señor, es bueno que estemos aquí."

Al igual que Pedro en la Transfiguración, deseamos desesperadamente que el sentimiento dure para siempre. Queremos aferrarnos a la certeza, la confianza y la alegría que irradia de nuestra alma. Queremos pasar una eternidad contemplando el rostro transfigurado de Cristo.

Pero todavía no estamos en el cielo. Levantamos nuestros ojos, viendo solo este mundo delante de nosotros, las palabras de Jesús resonando en nuestros oídos: "Levántate, y no tengas miedo."

"Su poder nunca se acabará, porque es un poder eterno, y su reino jamás será destruido."

—Daniel 7:14
