Book Reviewers Wanted!

Have you read any of the books in our parish library? Were you inspired? Did you talk about them excitedly afterwards with friends and family because you wanted to share your joy? Here is another opportunity to do that! To help our parishioners choose which books to select out of the more than 3,100 volumes in our collection, we are asking readers to submit in writing brief Book Reviews on the books in our Parish Library that they’ve enjoyed. Not sure what is in our Library? Go to: www.librarycat.org/lib/mmschom and search for books you’ve read. Then write a brief review for those books that really moved or excited you. Reviews should be submitted to "churchlibrary@stmaryeugene.com." Be sure to include the title and author. Please submit just one book review per email; but you can write as many reviews as you like. Don't worry about your grammar or spelling, we will edit before we post them in our collection's database for all to read. We hope you continue to enjoy the many valuable volumes we have at hand. Thank you!

The answer is the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist! Through it the priest offers the most sublime of sacrifices, that of God the Son to God the Father, applying the merits of Calvary to our lives today.

La Revelación De Dios

51. “Dispuso Dios en su sabiduría revelarse a sí mismo y dar a conocer el misterio de su voluntad, mediante el cual los hombres, por medio de Cristo, Verbo encarnado, tienen acceso al Padre en el Espíritu Santo y se hacen consortes de la naturaleza divina.”

52. Dios, que “habita una luz inaccesible” quiere comunicar su propia vida divina a los hombres libremente creados por él, para hacer de ellos, en su Hijo único, hijos adoptivos. Al revelarse a sí mismo, Dios quiere hacer a los hombres capaces de responderle, de conocerle y de amarle más allá de lo que ellos serían capaces por sus propias fuerzas.
