Heresies Then and Now: A Look at Ancient Heresies and Their Current Implementations (2nd Term)
This is the second of a 2-part course on heresies in the Church. It continues in the examination of ancient heresies or false beliefs that the early church had to confront (with the exception of the final class on “The Sinless Will” which has ancient roots, but was primarily manifested in the Middle Ages). The goal of this course is to be informative about ancient false teachings along with the modern tendencies to keep them alive and flourishing. The classes will be held at 10:30 Tuesday mornings in the Parish Center.

- October 22—Marcionism: The God of the Old Testament is Irrelevant
- October 29—Donatism: Clergy Must Be Without Sin for Sacraments to Be Effective
- November 5—Pelagianism: Human Effort is Sufficient Unto Salvation
- November 12—The Sinless Will: Superior Christians Have the Divine Will Imbued

Mommy & Me Rosary Group-Schedule Change
The Mommy & Rosary Group has a new schedule; we now meet every first & third Thursday of the month at 9:00 am in the Parish Hall. Come pray the rosary the way St. John Paul II encouraged while the kids play! Pack some toys and diapers and share fellowship with other Moms searching for time to connect with God amid the hectic routines of parenting young children. Coffee and treats provided. All are welcome and RSVP’s are appreciated to help us adjust for numbers. Call Marybeth in the Parish Office, 541-342-1139.

Calendaring for 2020
The new year is rapidly approaching. All events are being programmed into our scheduling calendar. Please call Rose, 541-342-1139, to confirm all scheduled events/activities at St. Mary’s facilities. This includes meetings, prayer groups, music practices, special events, classes, etc. Thank you.

All Souls Envelopes
All Souls envelopes are located at the entrances of the church. Please clearly print names of those you want remembered during All Souls month. Have the envelopes returned to the office no later than November 30. Each week we will have a list in the bulletin of the names we have received.

How Parents Can Nurture Vocations
Set an example. Model discipleship and a loving marriage to your children. Seek role models. Befriend priests, sisters, and brothers and invite them to your home. Look to scripture. Read and discuss the Bible stories of Mary’s response to God (Luke 1:26-39), and Jesus calling the Apostles (Mt 4:18-22). Pray for the future. Pray aloud that your children will follow Jesus and remain open to holy marriage, priesthood, and religious life. If your child does express interest in the priesthood or religious life, be supportive. The best thing you can say is, “Whatever God wants for you, I want for you, too. Just keep praying to discover His will for your life.”

The Marian Blue Wave
The Marian Blue Wave is a clarion call to Catholics across America to pray a weekly Rosary with the specific intentions of ending all clinical, chemical, medical, and surgical abortion and shutting down every Planned Parenthood facility in the United States. Inspired by Bishop Strickland, American Life League decided to expand on efforts that were already bearing so much fruit, and launch the Marian Blue Wave campaign, to reach from one corner of this nation to the other. Please go to the website: marianbluewave.com/Rosary to make your personal or group commitment.

Inside the St. Mary Library...
The online Catholic magazine Aleteia recently published an article on the importance of spiritual reading entitled “10 Books to Jumpstart Your Spiritual Reading”. Some of the books recommended by the article (all of which are in the St. Mary Library) include: Life of Christ by Fulton Sheen, The Greatest Story Ever Told by Fulton Oursler, Jesus of Nazareth by Pope Benedict XVI, This Tremendous Lover by Eugene Boylan, Introduction to the Devout Life by St. Francis de Sales, and Reed of God by Caryll Houselander. For the complete article go to Aleteia.org.
Religion in Literature
The next Religion in Literature meeting will be on Thursday, November 9, 2017, at 7:00 pm in the Elizabeth Seton Room in the Parish Center. The book to be discussed is “Field Work” (poems) by Seamus Heaney.

En aquel tiempo, para enseñar a sus discípulos la necesidad de orar siempre y sin desfallecer, Jesús les propuso esta parábola:

“En cierta ciudad había un juez que no temía a Dios ni respetaba a los hombres. Vivía en aquella misma ciudad una viuda que acudía a él con frecuencia para decirle: ‘Hazme justicia contra mi adversario’.

Por mucho tiempo, el juez no le hizo caso, pero después se dijo: ‘Aunque no temo a Dios ni respeto a los hombres, sin embargo, por la insistencia de esta viuda, voy a hacerle justicia para que no me siga molestando’.

Dicho esto, Jesús comentó: “Si así pensaba el juez injusto, ¿creen ustedes acaso que Dios no hará justicia a sus elegidos, que claman a él día y noche, y que los hará esperar? Yo les digo que les hará justicia sin tardar. Pero, cuando venga el Hijo del hombre, ¿creen ustedes que encontrará fe sobre la tierra?”

St. Vincent de Paul

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international organization of men and women who seek, in a prayerful spirit of justice and by personal involvement, to be present to those who are suffering. St. Mary’s Conference was formed in 1956 and has been actively serving the poor since then. Assistance to the poor includes providing clothing and rent or just a listening ear.

St. Mary’s Conference is funded solely through the parishioners of St. Mary Catholic Church. The conference meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 5:30 pm in the St. Mary Room next to the Adoration Chapel. Meetings include prayer, spiritual reflection, discussion of home visits, problem solving and enjoying the spirit of friendship. For more information, call the Parish Office at 541-342-1139.
