The Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 27, 2019
Humility is the recognition that no matter what our accomplishments, we still stand in need of the Lord. God hears the cry of the poor and the oppressed, especially those who acknowledge their dependency upon Him. Having heard Paul’s cries for help, the Lord crowned him with eternal salvation.

Feel, Think, Act – Different Aims for Different Ages
How to talk to young people about priesthood? One seasoned pastor shared his strategy: “For the little ones in grade school, I want them to feel something positive about the priesthood. For the boys in middle school, I want them to think something good about the possibility of being a priest. For guys in high school or college, I want them to do something concrete to discover if Jesus is calling them to enter seminary.”

“When people wish to destroy religion, they begin by attacking the priest, because when there is no longer any priest there is no sacrifice, and where there is no longer any sacrifice, there is no religion.”

St. John Vianney

All Souls Envelopes
All Souls envelopes are located at the entrances of the church. Please clearly print names of those you want remembered during All Souls month. Have the envelopes returned to the office no later than November 30. Each week we will have a list in the bulletin of the names we have received.

Heresies Then and Now: A Look at Ancient Heresies and Their Current Implementations (2nd Term)
This is the second of a 2-part course on heresies in the Church. It continues in the examination of ancient heresies or false beliefs that the early church had to confront (with the exception of the final class on “The Sinless Will” which has ancient roots, but was primarily manifested in the Middle Ages). The goal of this course is to be informative about ancient false teachings along with the modern tendencies to keep them alive and flourishing. The classes will be held at 10:30 Tuesday mornings in the Parish Center.

Evangelio según San Lucas, Capítulo 18, 9-14

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo esta parábola sobre algunos que se tenían por justos y despreciaban a los demás:

El publicano, en cambio, se quedó lejos y no se atrevía a levantar los ojos al cielo. Lo único que hacía era golpearse el pecho, diciendo: ‘Dios mío, apiádate de mí, que soy un pecador’.

Pues bien, yo les digo que éste bajó a su casa justificado y aquél no; porque todo el que se enaltece será humillado y el que se humilla será enaltecido”.

Mateo 5, 1-12

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo esta parábola sobre algunos que se tenían por justos y despreciaban a los demás:

“Dichosos los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos.
Dichosos los que lloran, porque serán consolados.
Dichosos los sufridos, porque heredarán la tierra.
Dichosos los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, porque serán saciados.
Dichosos los misericordiosos, porque obtendrán misericordia.
Dichosos los limpios de corazón, porque verán a Dios.
Dichosos los que trabajan por la paz, porque se les llamará hijos de Dios.
Dichosos los perseguidos por causa de la justicia, porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos.
Dichosos serán ustedes cuando los injurien, los persigan y digan cosas falsas de ustedes por causa mía. Alégrense y salten de contento, porque su premio será grande en los cielos”.
