The Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 10, 2019

In response to an attempt to ridicule His teaching about life after death, Jesus again proclaims a resurrection from the dead, that life is indeed stronger than death itself. This is our eternal consolation and hope. Then will our joy be truly fulfilled.

Parish Office News
The St. Mary Parish Office will now be open from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. the 2nd and 4th Sundays of every month. We hope by expanding our office hours we will be able to better meet the needs of our Parishioners. The Parish Office will be open on November 10 and November 24.

Parish Calendars
We are currently looking for a new sponsor for the calendars that St. Mary gives out at the end of each year. If you would like to make a donation, so that we can continue this wonderful gift to the Parish, or if you are the owner of a business and would like to sponsor this gift, please call Rose in the Parish Office (541) 342-1139.

THANK YOU for adding St. Mary to your Fred Meyer Rewards Card! Since we joined back in April, we have received generous donations through the Fred Meyer Community Rewards program. If you still haven’t signed up, be sure and visit www.fredmeyer.com/communityrewards - search for St. Mary by our non-profit # QB763 and help us earn more contributions!

Calendaring for 2020
The new year is rapidly approaching. All events are being programmed into our scheduling calendar. Please call Rose, 541-342-1139, to confirm all scheduled events/activities at St. Mary’s facilities. This includes meetings, prayer groups, music practices, special events, classes, etc. Thank you.

Children’s Liturgy Parents: The children leave Mass at the Blessing and return at the Offertory. Please be aware of the time when your child returns to Mass. To All Men of Any Age in the Parish:
You are most welcome to participate in our Chant Schola that has now begun to sing at the 7:30 am Mass each Sunday.

Our new Schola rehearses each Wednesday from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm in the Parish Center and is currently working on some of the most beautiful treasures of our Catholic musical tradition, Gregorian Chant.

The sound of Gregorian Chant is the sound of the early Church singing its faith. It is the sound of unity and the undivided Church. It is music of the Spirit, healing and refreshing. These ancient melodies of chant breathe the mystery of God and His holy presence among us.

If you can carry a tune (think, “Mary Had a Little Lamb”), we would love to welcome you to our Schola.

For more information, please call David Phillips at the Parish Office at 541-342-1139, ext. 320, or send him an email to: David@GentleSpiritMusic.com

All Souls Envelopes
All Souls envelopes are located at the entrances of the church. Please clearly print names of those you want remembered during All Souls month. Have the envelopes returned to the office no later than November 30. Each week we will have a list in the bulletin of the names we have received.
Volunteer Opportunities

We are looking for dedicated folks to learn to make specialty coffees and smoothies, and serve our parishioners during special events and Sunday Hospitality. Do you have a couple of free hours on Monday morning? Do you like to straighten and organize? Do you like peace and quiet? We have the volunteer job for you. You can help to prepare the Lord’s house for the week by straightening out the pews and putting items in order. Call the Parish Office for more information at 541-342-1139.

Volunteers

All volunteers who work as Lead Ushers, Extraordinary Ministers to the Homebound or if you work with children in any capacity….this year’s Safe Environment Training, required by Archbishop Sample, must be completed by December 1, 2019. Please contact your team leader for more information.

Book Review: Edmund Campion by Evelyn Waugh

Arguably the greatest novelist of the 20th century, the Catholic convert Evelyn Waugh turns his sights here to a narrative-driven biography of the Anglican academic-turned-Jesuit priest Edmund Campion, who after escaping to the Continent from persecution under the Elizabethan regime, returned on a virtual suicide mission to Great Britain to succor the remaining Catholic inhabitants. Waugh brings Campion’s piety and heroism to life, as he tells a gripping story about a dark time in the United Kingdom.

Heresies Then and Now: A Look at Ancient Heresies and Their Current Implementations (2nd Term)

This is the second of a 2-part course on heresies in the Church. It continues in the examination of ancient heresies or false beliefs that the early church had to confront (with the exception of the final class on “The Sinless Will” which has ancient roots, but was primarily manifested in the Middle Ages). The goal of this course is to be informative about ancient false teachings along with the modern tendencies to keep them alive and flourishing. The class will be held at 10:30 Tuesday morning in the Parish Center.

Evangelio según San Lucas, 20, 27-38
En aquel tiempo, “se acercaron a Jesús algunos saduceos. Como los saduceos niegan la resurrección de los muertos, [le preguntaron: “Maestro, Moisés nos dejó escrito que si alguno tiene un hermano casado que muere sin haber tenido hijos, se case con la viuda para dar descendencia a su hermano. Hubo una vez siete hermanos, el mayor de los cuales se casó y murió sin dejar hijos. El segundo, el tercero y los demás, hasta el séptimo, tomaron por esposa a la viuda y todos murieron sin dejar sucesión. Por fin murió también la viuda. Ahora bien, cuando llegue la resurrección, ¿de cuál de ellos será esposa la mujer, pues los siete estuvieron casados con ella?”

Jesús les dijo: “En esta vida, hombres y mujeres se casan, pero en la vida futura, los que sean juzgados dignos de ella y de la resurrección de los muertos, no se casarán ni podrán ya morir, porque serán como los ángeles e hijos de Dios, pues él los habrá resucitado.

Y que los muertos resuciten, el mismo Moisés lo indica en el episodio de la zarza, cuando llama al Señor, Dios de Abraham, Dios de Isaac, Dios de Jacob. Porque Dios no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, pues para él todos viven”.
