Parish Events

THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

As a precaution against the spread of viruses, the distribution of the Precious Blood during Mass will be temporarily discontinued. Please know that when you receive the consecrated host, you receive all of Jesus, “Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.”

Please refrain from shaking hands or touching when greeting others or during the sign of peace. A wave or nod with a smile should be exchanged instead.

To protect your own health, remember to wash your hands frequently and if you have a fever, please stay home.

LENTEN BIBLE STUDY

“...for us men and for our salvation.” Just what does that mean, “Salvation”? Join us this Spring for an inspiring video series and discussion to find out!

Scripture scholar and theologian Michael Patrick Barber will offer a thorough, deeply Catholic and deeply biblical answer through the Lectio: Salvation video series available on FORMED. Based on the best-selling book, Salvation: What Every Catholic Should Know, this 10-part series is inspiring, engaging, and accessible to anyone. Group discussion will follow each showing. Marybeth Schombert will facilitate.

The series runs for 10 weeks. All sessions are held in the Parish Center. Tuesday sessions begin March 10 at 10:30 am, and Wednesday sessions begin March 11 at 6:30 pm.

No preregistration required. All are welcome.

PLEASE DO NOT BRING FLOWERS INTO THE CHURCH DURING LENT.

---

MOMMY & ME ROSARY GROUP

Come pray the rosary, the way St. John Paul II encouraged, while the kids play! Pack some toys and diapers and share fellowship with other Moms searching for time to connect with God amid the hectic routines of parenting young children. Coffee and treats provided. The Mommy & Me Rosary Group meets every first & third Thursday of the month at 9:00 am in the Parish Hall. All are welcome and RSVP’s are appreciated. WE ARE CALLED

Join our faith community – and more than 14,000 Catholic communities across the United States – in a life-changing Lenten journey with Catholic Relief Services (CRS) Rice Bowl. Pick up your family’s CRS Rice Bowl from the church vestibules. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on the challenge of global hunger and how it affects our human family.

Trinh’s family farm in Vietnam has been affected by climate change. What would you do if your source of nutrition was threatened? How can we support those whose livelihoods are vulnerable to weather? Visit crsricebowl.org for more information.

PASTORAL COUNCIL CORNER

The St. Mary Pastoral Council has been reading from the documents from the Vatican II Council and has chosen to share excerpts from Chapter IV of Lumen Gentium, which is about the laity, those of us who are not ordained or called to the religious life. The Council picked out some particular points for us to pray about:

- We, the laity, share in the mission of the Church to save all souls by directing our daily affairs according to God’s will.
- The laity acts like leaven, making the world holy from within, by fulfilling our regular duties with love.
- Christ gives us his spirit and pushes us forward to continual conversion & apostolate with those around us every day.

This is a beautiful chapter and can be downloaded for free from the Vatican website. The link is at the St. Mary website on the Educational resources page. We also have copies of the Vatican II documents in the St. Mary Library.

Inside the St. Mary Library…

A great resolution for Lent can be to meditate on Jesus’ Passion and death with the help of a good book. Some titles that are available in the St. Mary Library include: The Day Christ Died by Jim Bishop, Seven Words to the Cross by Fulton Sheen, and The Mystery of Calvary by Gerard Rooney, C.P. Come check out the collection and find something to feed your soul this Lent!

Drop by any Sunday after the 9:00 am or 11:00 am Masses or on Tuesdays after the 12:15 pm Mass. The St. Mary Library is located next to the Adoration Chapel in the St. Joseph room.

THE BIBLE IN 365 DAYS

The daily Bible reading plan has resulted in a number of people asking to purchase Bibles from us. Copies of the New American Bible are available for $5.00 in the Library.

If a larger print Bible is needed, we will help with ordering for anyone without online access. The pricing is from $13.00 currently, but will vary, and any orders must be prepaid.

RELIGION IN LITERATURE

Join the discussion at the next meeting of Religion in Literature, on Thursday, March 19. We will discuss For the Light of the World by Alexander Schmemann in the St. Mary room of the Parish Center at 7:00 pm.

PARISH OFFICE NEWS

The Parish Office is open today!

The St. Mary Parish Office is open from 8:30 am to 2:30 pm the 2nd and 4th Sunday of every month. We hope by expanding our office hours we will be able to better meet the needs of our parishioners. The Parish Office will be open March 22, and will be closed April 12, in observance of Easter.

† II DOMINGO DE CUARESMA †
Mt 17, 1-9
En aquel tiempo, Jesús tomó consigo a Pedro, a Santiago y a Juan, el hermano de éste, y los hizo subir a solas con él a un monte elevado. Allí se transfiguró en su presencia: su rostro se puso resplandeciente como el sol y sus vestiduras se volvieron blancas como la nieve. De pronto aparecieron ante ellos Moisés y Elías, conversando con Jesús.

Entonces Pedro le dijo a Jesús: “Señor, ¡qué bueno sería quedarnos aquí! Si quieres, haremos aquí tres chozas, una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías”.

Cuando aún estaba hablando, una nube luminosa los cubrió y de ella salió una voz que decía: “Éste es mi Hijo muy amado, en quien tengo puestas mis complacencias; escúchenlo”. Al oír esto, los discípulos cayeron rostro en tierra, llenos de un gran temor. Jesús se acercó a ellos, los tocó y les dijo: “Levántense y no teman”. Alzando entonces los ojos, ya no vieron a nadie más que a Jesús.

Mientras bajaban del monte, Jesús les ordenó: “No le cuenten a nadie lo que han visto, hasta que el Hijo del hombre haya resucitado de entre los muertos”.
