3rd Sunday of Easter

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, “The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!”

The Third Sunday of Easter
April 26, 2020

Through the blood of Jesus we have been delivered from the power of sin.
We recognize him in the breaking of the bread, the one whom God raised from the dead and who now sits at His right hand forever.

Next Week’s Readings

NEW DECREED EXTENDING SUSPENSION OF MASSES
Archbishop Sample has issued a decree extending the suspension of the public celebration of Holy Mass and issuing a corresponding dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Masses. The Archbishop has made this extension until further notice and with the intention to reinstate the public celebration of the Holy Mass at the soonest date possible, following the recommendations of public health and other civil officials.

Dispensation can be viewed at archdpdx.org.

New Mass Schedule
A private Mass will be celebrated in the church daily while the Stay Home – Stay Safe quarantine remains in effect on the following schedule:
• Monday at 12:15 (not streamed)
• Tuesday through Friday at 12:15 pm,
• Saturday at 8:00 am,
• Sunday at 9:00 am, 11:00 am Misa en Español.

Tuesday through Sunday Masses will be live streamed using Facebook Live. You can connect through Facebook or by clicking on the link at www.stmaryeugene.com.

Caterina Benincasa was born in Siena on March 25, 1347, the last of 25 children of the wealthy wool-dyer Jacopo Benincasa and Lapa di Puccio dé Piacenti.

At the age of six, Catherine received her first vision, near the Church of San Domenico. From this moment onwards the child began to follow a path of devotion, taking the oath of chastity only a year later.

After initial resistance from her family, eventually her father gave in and left Catherine to follow her inclinations. In 1363, at just 15 years of age, Catherine donned the black cloak of the Dominican Tertiary sisters. In 1367 she began working tirelessly to help the sick at the hospital of Santa Maria della Scala.

As her fame spread throughout Christendom, during a visit to the city of Pisa, Catherine received the stigmata from a wooden cross hanging in the Church of Santa Cristina.

Her many travels abroad to act as mediator for the Papacy included a trip to Avignon, where she urged Pope Gregory to bring the Papal Court back to Rome from its exile in France.

On returning to Siena, Catherine founded the Monastery of Santa Maria degli Angeli in the castle of Belcaro.

With the death of Pope Gregory XI in 1378, his successor, Urban VI, had to face strong opposition from a number of cardinals who had elected a second Pope with the name of Clement VII, thereby provoking what would later come to be termed the Great Schism of the West.

Pope Urban VI called on Catherine to act as mediator with princes, politicians and members of the Church, with a view to legitimizing his election.

In 1380, at just 33, Catherine died and was buried in the Rome church of Santa Maria Sopra Minerva.

In 1461, Pope Pius II proclaimed her saint and in 1866 Pius IX included her as one of the patron saints of Rome. In 1939, along with St Francis of Assisi, St Catherine of Siena was proclaimed patron saint of Italy by Pope Pius XII.

In 1970, Paul VI conferred the title of Doctor of the Universal Church on Catherine and, in 1999, she was proclaimed co-patron saint of Europe by Pope John Paul II.

GOSPEL MEDITATION
THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

What does it take for our eyes to be opened? Every day, a man laboriously walks down Main Street of town. With great difficulty but graceful determination, he places one foot in front of the other, uses a crudely made staff for support, and walks. His pace is slow, but he walks. What does he hope to see? Where does he want to go? What does he find? We all walk through life. The type of “walking” life requires is not always physical but is most assuredly emotional and spiritual. We walk, we look, we encounter, and we seek. How we do these things and what we actually find is determined by what we carry and what we allow ourselves to discover along the way.

If walking is too challenging for us, we may choose to isolate and stay alone. If we are afraid to walk, we may become overly dependent on others providing for us and abandon the journey. We can walk and pay attention only to what is in front of our feet and never notice the immensity of what is happening around us. The road is never the same twice. The journey is always different. What kinds of things do you notice as you walk through life? It seems that the disciples of the Road to Emmaus missed a lot at first. We do as well.

We are called to walk with purpose, to listen, and to notice things that may not at first be apparent. We have to allow the One who has a special claim on our soul to enlighten, instruct, and inspire us. The incarnate mystery of God is pulsating in and through all of creation, where the presence of the Word who became flesh can be discovered. He has been with us all along. How could we have missed Him? Our journey brings us back to the breaking of the bread, and something begins to stir within us. We begin to understand, and things look differently. Bread, body, wine, and blood bring us to see that everyone and everything is a “Eucharistic” encounter. We become what we eat and we see what we eat. We continue to walk. Our eyes are now opened, and we recognize Him. Our hearts burn. Stay with us. Please stay with us.

WALK WITH PURPOSE

GROUP PRAYER CHAINS
Looking for a way to stay connected with your friends and also to keep up your prayer life during this time of quarantine? Consider starting a Group Prayer Chain! A Group Prayer Chain is when a group of friends schedule a set time each day to say the same prayer where ever they are. The leader of the group gets it started by texting the group a reminder and perhaps a short reflection or prayer intention. Then each person says the agreed upon prayer in their own home at the same time. One St. Mary Parishioner prays the Divine Mercy Chaplet with four friends everyday at 3:00 pm, but any prayer or set of prayers could work. It has been said that “the family that prays together, stays together.” A Group Prayer Chain can help us, the spiritual family at St. Mary, pray together, even if we are apart.

PRAY CATHOLIC NOVENAS
Download and enjoy a great App, Pray Catholic Novenas. You may choose Novenas or it will suggest them and you can schedule a daily reminder to fit into your schedule. Upcoming Novenas for May include:
- Our Lady of Fatima – begins May 4
- St. Corona – begins May 5
- St. Dymphna – begins May 6
- St. Rita – begins May 13
- Novena to the Holy Spirit – begins May 22

If you have a Catholic App you enjoy and would like to share please email bmaddux@stmaryeugene.com.

EASTER FLOWERS
All of the beautiful Easter flowers in the church represent a loved one. We remember with Easter joy:
- Dan O’Neil
- Jack & Kathleen O’Neil
- Kelly O’Neil
- Tung Fai Tung
- David Varin
- Bob & Lucile Wirch

PRAYER TO ST CATHERINE OF SIENA
April 29
Heavenly Father, your glory is in your saints. We praise your glory in the life of the admirable St. Catherine of Siena, virgin and doctor of the Church.

Her whole life was a noble sacrifice inspired by an ardent love of Jesus, your unblemished Lamb.
In troubled times she strenuously upheld the rights of His beloved spouse, The Church.

Father, honor her merits and hear her prayers for each of us, and for our whole parish family dedicated to her. Help us to pass unscathed through the corruption of this world, and to remain unshakably faithful to the Church in word, deed, and example.
Help us always to see in the Vicar of Christ an anchor in the storms of life, and a beacon of light to the harbor of your Love, in this dark night of your times and men’s souls.

Grant also to each of us our special petition . . .
(State your own intentions)

We ask this through Jesus, your Son, in the bond of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
St. Catherine of Siena, Pray for us.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION
My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
THE “VIRTUAL” PARISH OFFICE IS OPEN

The Parish Office is “open” with staff working remotely. We are available Monday through Friday, 9:00 am - 5:00 pm, by phone at 541-342-1139.

III DOMINGO DE PASCUA
Lc 24, 13-35
El mismo día de la resurrección, iban dos de los discípulos hacia un pueblo llamado Emaús, situado a unos once kilómetros de Jerusalén, y comentaban todo lo que había sucedido.

Mientras conversaban y discutían, Jesús se les acercó y comenzó a caminar con ellos; pero los ojos de los dos discípulos estaban velados y no lo reconocieron. Él les preguntó: “¿De qué cosas vienen hablando, tan llenos de tristeza?”

Uno de ellos, llamado Cleofás, le respondió: “¿Eres tú el único forastero que no sabe lo que ha sucedido estos días en Jerusalén?” Él les preguntó: “¿Qué cosa?” Ellos le respondieron: “Lo de Jesús el nazareno, que era un profeta poderoso en obras y palabras, ante Dios y ante todo el pueblo. Cómo los sumos sacerdotes y nuestros jefes lo entregaron para que lo condenaran a muerte, y lo crujificaron. Nosotros esperábamos que él sería el libertador de Israel, y sin embargo, han pasado ya tres días desde que estas cosas sucedieron. Es cierto que algunas mujeres de nuestro grupo nos han desconcertado, pues fueron de madrugada al sepulcro, no encontraron el cuerpo y llegaron contando que se les habían aparecido unos ángeles, que les dijeron que estaba vivo. Algunos de nuestros compañeros fueron al sepulcro y hallaron todo como habían dicho las mujeres, pero a él no lo vieron”.

Entonces Jesús les dijo: “¡Qué insensatos son ustedes y qué duros de corazón para creer todo lo anunciado por los profetas! ¿Acaso no era necesario que el Mesías padeciera todo esto y así entrara en su gloria?” Y comenzando por Moisés y siguiendo con todos los profetas, les explicó todos los pasajes de la Escritura que se referían a él.

Ya cerca del pueblo a donde se dirigían, él hizo como que iba más lejos; pero ellos le insistieron, diciendo: “Quédate con nosotros, porque ya es tarde y pronto va a oscurecer”. Y entró para quedarse con ellos. Cuando estaban a la mesa, tomó un pan, pronunció la bendición, lo partió y se lo dio. Entonces se les abrieron los ojos y lo reconocieron, pero él se les desapareció. Y ellos se decían el uno al otro: “¿Con razón nuestro corazón ardía, mientras nos hablaba por el camino y nos explicaba las Escrituras!”

Se levantaron inmediatamente y regresaron a Jerusalén, donde encontraron reunidos a los Once con sus compañeros, los cuales les dijeron: “De veras ha resucitado el Señor y se le ha aparecido a Simón”. Entonces ellos contaron lo que les había pasado por el camino y cómo lo habían reconocido al partir el pan.

MISA EN VIVO EN LÍNEA
Domingo a las 11:00
La misa se transmitirá en vivo usando Facebook Live. Puede conectarse a través de Facebook o haciendo clic en el enlace en www.stmaryeugene.com.

ORACIÓN POR COMUNIÓN SPIRITUAL Mi Jesús,
yo creo que estás presente en el Santísimo Sacramento. Te amo sobre todas las cosas, y deseo recibirte en mi alma.
Ya que no puedo en este momento recibirte sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Te abrazo como si ya estuviera allí y me uno totalmente a Ti.
Nunca permita que yo sea separado de ti. Amen

RECONCILIACIÓN HORARIO
miércoles y viernes 11:00 am, sábado 4:00 pm
Para cumplir con las restricciones a la reunión publicas requeridas por la Gobernadora Kate Brown, y proporcionar un ambiente seguro, el Sacramento de la Reconciliación ocurrirá de una manera diferente.
El Sacramento de la Reconciliación se llevará a cabo en los salones de clase del Centro Parroquial. Esto permitirá 6 pies de distanciamiento social los sacerdotes y la gente.
• Por favor, estacione cerca de la entrada principal del Centro Parroquial.
• Se le dará un numero en las puertas doblas.
• Espere en su automóvil hasta que su número se publique en la pizarra.
• Cuando vea su número publicado, regrese a las puertas doblas y será admitido en el área de espera del Salón Parroquial.
• Se lo dirigirá a una sala de clase para la reconciliación cuando haya un sacerdote disponible.
• Completa su penitencia según las indicaciones del sacerdote.
CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Due to the uncertainty related to Covid-19 statewide quarantine, the calendar is subject to change. The calendar is reflecting the extension of the restrictions currently in place. When the quarantine ends, we will communicate the return to normal schedule through our website www.stmaryeugene.com.
